

CAMPER CODE OF CONDUCT

“AS A CAMPER, I AGREE TO . . .”

- Participate in all aspects of the camp program and to follow the daily camp schedule. I will conduct myself appropriately during all activities and classes.
- Have fun and try new things through challenges.
- Conduct myself with respect towards other campers, instructors, and camp staff, so that I myself may be respected. I will follow instructions from ANY adult supervisors or camp staff.
- Follow the policies given at each area during scheduled recreation time.
- Take responsibility for any equipment I use, and I will pay for any intentional loss or breakage.
- Respect property by keeping the facilities clean and not using such items as water balloons, shaving cream, and toilet paper for destructive purposes.
- Not use any form of tobacco, alcoholic beverages, drugs, or firecrackers while at camp.
- Wear appropriate clothing at all times. I will not wear inappropriate advertising on clothing, including drugs, alcohol, tobacco, sex, or violence. My body will be modestly covered from shoulders to mid-thigh. I will wear shirts and shoes unless in the pool or on boats.
- Be in my assigned cabin after curfew.
- Not participate in any act of violence. I understand that acts of violence will not be tolerated and that firearms and weapons, including pocket knives, are prohibited.
